

Job Vacancy – Systems Engineer

FIS Solutions & Security is a leading IT company based in Ramallah, specialized in network security technologies, archiving solutions and NAS solutions is seeking an experienced and motivated System Engineer.

Responsibilities:

- Troubleshooting of Kaspersky Endpoint Security, VMWare and Storage appliances as well as other components of internal and external systems.
- Handle Installation Projects.
- Evaluate environment for process improvement and make recommendations to improve support processes.
- Collaborate and communicate with other team members to provide good service and issue resolution.

Requirements:

- Experience in network technologies (Windows Server, UNIX, VMWare).
- Experience with SAN/NAS is a plus.
- Must have hands in Information security policies, procedure and framework.
- Effective communication, listening, verbal and written skills.
- Proficient in written and spoken English
- Team player with strong interpersonal skills to work with sales, consulting and support in a dynamic and innovative company environment.
- B.S in computer engineering or related field.

The candidates should submit their resume with English cover letter by email to careers@fis.ps no later than 31st May 2018.